Brief about the event (context and Learning outcomes)
The NSS Orientation Program for the 2024 batch, held on 17 July, was conducted to introduce newly enrolled volunteers to the vision, values, and functioning of the National Service Scheme. The session provided a clear overview of NSS activities, its motto “Not Me, But You,” and the role of volunteers in community engagement. Through presentations and interactions, the students received a foundational understanding of the year-long initiatives, upcoming events, and the culture of teamwork and discipline within the unit. Learning Outcomes • Volunteers understood the core purpose, structure, and motto of NSS. • They gained awareness of various annual activities, including social service drives, cultural events, and leadership opportunities. • Students learned the eligibility criteria for camps, expectations of discipline, and volunteer responsibilities. • Participants developed clarity on how NSS enhances teamwork, leadership skills, and social sensitivity. • New volunteers felt motivated and prepared to actively participate in future NSS initiatives.
